Community Services and Supports

Supported Community Living (SCL) addresses the dreams, desires, goals, strengths, abilities, needs, health, safety and life span issues of the member. Services may be in the family home, their own home or in a community setting. One to twenty-four hours of support per day are based on the individuals needs.

Consumer Directed Attendant Care (CDAC)

Assistance to the member with self-care tasks, which the member would typically do independently if he/she were otherwise able.

Respite Care Services provided to the member that gives temporary relief to the usual caregiver and provides all the necessary care that the usual caregiver would provide during that time.

Vocational Services

Supported Employment – Assistance for a person seeking employment in choosing, obtaining, and retaining integrated employment in the community

Day Program is designed to help the member to optimize their personal, social, vocational competency to live successfully in the community. Members are active partners in determining the activities they desire to participate in. Members participate in a variety of community life experiences or interactions. This program is beneficial to people who are not ready for or not interested in work services

Transportation is available for those members who travel to and from work or day programs and to reduce social isolation

Connecting employer personnel needs with people who can do the job.

Service Testimonial

“Unlimited services has changed my sister Diane’s life. They provide her a wide variety of services and supports that allow her to live in a group home environment as independently as possible.”

The supportive, loving management, and staff, truly care about Diane. It is not just a “job” to them, they go above and beyond providing quality care and services.”

-Dawn Olberding, sister/guardian

“My experience has been that the care-givers at the group homes demonstrate a sincere concern for the health, and safety and general well-being for those they serve. We are grateful for the wonderful care they provide.”

-David Dudley, brother/guardian
